

Unlock your earning and advancement potential

(FRI)

Fellow of the Real Estate Institute

The FRI Designation

Offered by the Real Estate Institute of Canada (REIC), the FRI is Canada's most established real estate designation.

The FRI signifies a professional with education that goes beyond licensing requirements who abides by the REIC Code of Professional Standards.

In an industry where knowledge and experience counts, employers and clients look to candidates who have the FRI credential as a mark of distinction.

Reach for the Top

The FRI designation is a valuable confirmation of the professional status of real estate practitioners.

The designation exemplifies a highly educated and experienced real estate professional with a wide range of industry expertise and a commitment to professional development and strong business ethics.

FRI - Course Requirements (Ontario)

- REIC 2600: Ethics and Business Practice
- FIN 402: Investment Real Estate - Financial Tools
- REIC 2270: Consumer Behaviour & Negotiating
- REIC 2360: The Leasing Process OR
- REIC 2280: Legal Issues in Real Estate

Real Estate/Business Law, Real Estate Valuation, University/ College Electives (3)*

*Equivalencies may be granted for courses taken through provincial real estate associations, universities, or colleges. Please contact designations@reic.com for an individual assessment.

“Getting my accreditation through REIC solidified my credibility with clients and helped take my career to the next level.”

Ken Finch, FRI, CPM®, ABR, Broker
Royal LePage Signature Realty, Brokerage
President, REIC Toronto Chapter

For admissions information contact REIC at designations@reic.com

Toll free: 1-800-542-7342 | GTA: 416-695-9000 | infocentral@reic.com | www.reic.ca

